Conflict Resolution Programme

Research Associates and Project Assistants

National Institute of Advanced Studies, a visionary initiative by J R D Tata, has a mandate to create leaders of substance and credibility in a variety of domains in India and to formulate policies, develop insights and carry out in-depth studies with the synergy of multi-disciplinary research in a wide spectrum of disciplines covering humanities, social sciences, education, culture, science, technology and consciousness. Please visit our website (www.nias.res.in) for a comprehensive perspective. NIAS works with the right degree of bureaucracy to enable faculty and scholars to attain satisfaction in their careers even as they achieve substantial outcomes.

The Conflict Resolution Programme at NIAS is carrying out a project on vulnerability and volunteerism. The project requires Research Associates and Project Assistants.

The Research Associates will be post-graduates with proficiency in data analysis and would have good writing skills in English.

The Project Assistants will be graduates and would be required to carry out extensive fieldwork in Karnataka in addition to other assignments. They will be proficient in Kannada and English.

Please send a CV, and the names of two referees, preferably electronically (as a single PDF document), to:
