

Dr. Shailaja D Sharma

Adjunct Faculty, NIAS

Core Domain of Interest

Business & Society

Collaborative programmes between business and academia, in the area of business & society.

Business Foresight Initiative

Associated with leading global open foresight programme, wherein organisations deal with greater unpredictability in the business environment by obtaining more external inputs into their strategy, via facilitated multi-stakeholder sectoral dialogues.

www.futureagenda.org

Indian Mathematics

Currently on academic sabbatical, in order to work on a popular science book project.

Corporate Experience

- Sep 2012 – April 2015: Director, National Entrepreneurship Network – Wadhvani Foundation
- Nov 2001-Aug 2012: Senior Manager, Shell India
- July 1998-Oct 2001: Consultant, NIIT
- Jun 1991-Sep 1994: Statistician, World Bank

Areas of expertise:

- Corporate Affairs, Sustainability, Corporate Social Responsibility, Business Risk & Reputation
- Policy & Advocacy
- Energy, Automotive, Education, Entrepreneurship
- Statistics, Economics, Project Management, Impact Assessment
- Innovation, Future Scenarios

Academic Background:

- Ph.D. Department of Mathematics, IIT Bombay, 1990

“Some Classes of 2-Adjugate Ternary Block Designs”

- M.Sc. Mathematics (Specialising in Statistics & OR), IIT Bombay, 1985
- B.Sc. Mathematics, University of Calicut, 1983

Publications

Recent publications include several newspaper articles in the national business newspaper Business Standard, focusing on the theme of corporate governance and business sustainability. Previous mathematical work has been published in peer-reviewed international journals.
